

Mike Stone serves as a Senior Counsel with Warner, Norcross + Judd, LLP where he co-chairs the firm's Aerospace, Defense + Government Services Industry Practice Group. He also serves on the firm's Automotive, Supply Chain and Cybersecurity/Privacy Practice Groups. Mike is a retired Major General from the U.S. Army with more than 30 years of military service, including four deployments and two combat tours.

Mike has ten years of experience serving as in-house counsel for privately held corporations as well as seven of those years as a General Counsel. Prior to his time as in-house counsel, he was a trial lawyer in southeast Michigan. While he is not a patent attorney, he has extensive experience in managing intellectual property portfolios.

Mike served as a Deputy Director in State government for more than eight years supporting two governors. While working for the National Guard in this capacity, Mike served on Governor Rick Snyder's Cyber Executive Team and worked closely with the National Governor's Association and National Security Staff on cyber policy matters. During his time as a General Officer, he served on the Army Staff, filling in for the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army for Energy and Sustainability.